Waitlisted applicants may be admitted if any vacancy becomes available. Graduating students being admitted to the program should submit university diplomas before enrollment. Students who fail to do so will be disqualified, and the vacancy will be added to the quota for master program through department entrance exam. If two or more applicants meet the minimum score level for admission, the applicant with the higher score according to evaluation priority will be admitted. If they all have the same score on each section, they will all be admitted under the permission of the MOE. Students with foreign university degrees must have the diplomas and full academic transcripts verified by the office of the Master's Degree Program of International Affairs before taking the examination. For native English speakers and those whose proof of English proficiency are not on the list, the applicants can submit their application forms only after the approval of the director of the program.
